THE New York Tribune is after Governor Robinson with a lighted lautern and a sharp stick. It has heard whispers of crookedness in the State treasury, and it says very frankly to the State Executive that the lid must come off, and the secrets. whatever they are, must be expessed. It reminds him that his is a "Reform Admin-"istration," which has something to do to make the crooked things straight.

IT was a matter of some surprise-though it has escaped public remark—that during hold of this matter as a mere experiment the ceremonies of the unveiling of the or for the fun of the thing, they will find THOMAS monument, while the whole city that it will stick like wax and they cannot and the various departments were richly shake it off at pleasure. Such are the presbedecked with flags, the Capitol building entaspects of the GRANT boom, and those was as barren as a blasted tree of fruit. "Our flag was not there." Why was this only to look on complacently and see it thus? Was it for the reason that the Capitol is in the hands of the ex-Confederates, stopped than the irresistible waters of the or is there another and better reason for this remarkable omission? We pause for a made to reverse their action and turn their

THE inquiry is now made whether or not the JAMES A. BAYARD, of Delaware, who is now speken of as a candidate for the Presidency, is the same Hon. JAMES A. BAY-ARD whom Horace Greekey in the New HEAD is represented as having said: ARD whom Horace Greekey in the New York Weekly Tribuneof June 29, 1861, said, on authority in which he "placed perfect con-fidence," was then in the city of New York with Hon R. This latter fact is of pair to bet on. Our hotel theroughly understand that it has no further use for them. The Democracy entertain for them no respect whatever, and the only use to which they will be put by that party in the future will be as paid scavongers to dea hittle dirty work. That is all.

The day has gone by when such men can control the Republican party. They are too well known, and the motives underlying their actions are thoroughly understood. Carl. Schurz can no more control the German vote than Hannerson, can hand ever the State of facilities are incomparable; but it always happens-most always, at least-that the railroads connecting us with the country at large fail to reduce their rates on such occasions. This fact was fully illustrated during the late reunion of the Army of the Cumberland, when the reduction of fares was refused by those companies altogether seriously interfering with the success of that display.

As the matter now stands, we believe there are no regularly authorized committees of this GRANT man.

SCHURZ's partner, PRITORIUS, is feeling the force of your articles. His associate force disapprove of his attitude, as it is opposed not only to their personal interests, but is not in harmony with the sentiments of nine-tenths of the readers of the Post, and is destructive of their political influence and force, unless it intends going direct to the Democrats. Pagerosrus's assistants are personally appealing the progress assistants are personally appealing the progress of the property of the kind in existence, all pretentions in that direction having been abandoned by mutual consent all around. Who will set the hall in motion?

THE correspondents of English journals are worse even than the naughty Radicals in their accounts of the outrages committed upon the negroes at the South which led to the exodus. A correspondent of the leading English journal thus refers to the unheard-of cruelties and oppressions to which they are subjected by the planters. An instance of the atrocities is cited. A respectable colored man went to Kansas at the beginning of the exodus, worked diligently, saved money enough to buy a little building plot, built a hut, went back to Mississippi for his wife and family, was seized, dragged from the house and both his hands cut off! He was then told, with fearful oaths, to the Democrats want peace. "go to Kansas now and work for your fam-"ity and make a fortune!" The poor maimed man has returned with his wife Mail takes the Louisville Courier Journal and little ones. Another instance is ever by the ear and lectures it seriously for any more heartrending.
